I HAVE just listened to the president of the United States making his address over the radio from a college in Virginia. In that address he charged Italy with being a coward, and plunging a dagger into the back of a neighbor. That is true. Time will write upon its blood-bathed pages this act on the part of Italy, which, if Italy lives another million years as a nation (which I doubt), she will never erase. Cowardice is the wrong name for such a despicable act. But then, both Hitler and Mussolini are tarred with the same brush, and the brush smells. Hitler wrote in a book some words regarding Italy, and Mussolini should have read those words. Hitler, at the present moment, is probably laughing up his sleeve, thinking what a monkey he has made of Mussolini and the whole Italian people.

It was inevitable, though, for in this day of the Armageddon, all, not part, of the forces of evil will go forth to do battle. They will lose. As I write this, the French are in full retreat from Paris. They are moving their government to some other city; but this war is not yet over. It will not be over until such cowards as Hitler and Mussolini and the peoples who follow them are once and for all moved into the oblivion from which they never should have emerged. What Italy really did by entering the war in such a cowardly manner was to make the defeat of Germany and Italy so much more sure. Inside of two weeks, Italy will wish she had never declared war; for this war will not stop until those forces of insanity, of horror, of hatred, and of wholesale slaughter are once and for all banished from the face of the earth.

What Italy has done, has made Uncle Sam just a bit mad. From this moment on, this grand Old Man will run his fingers through his hair, size up the situation, and decide that it's time he stepped into the picture and straightened it out. He will do a good job; for Americans are not Italians or Germans—they are Americans, and that's saying a whole lot. While most of the preachers and the churches are talking "conscientious objectors," the "Psychiana" Movement is calling upon every able bodied man in its ranks to stand 100 per cent behind this government; and they will do it, too. You will not find them whimpering and trying to hide under the cloak of God, when the very things God stands for are threatened. That's almost as cowardly as the act of Mussolini. Yet the good old Methodist church, in its Idaho State Conference recently, O. K.'d "conscientious objectors." I wouldn't O. K. them. To me, they are conscientious cowards, and I say this because, while they try to hide under the cloak of God and religion, not one of them can tell us who or what God is, nor for what purpose God exists. Until the Methodist church can tell us that, and until it can prove its claims to know God, it should be made to fight for America when the need arises. It probably will too, for this war will usher in a new conception of God, and religion. The old stuff is out. It never should have come in. The great test it will be put to will prove it to be dross instead of gold. The true gold of God and religion will appear after the false dross has been exposed.

There are dark and perilous days ahead. Men will suffer, and this conflagration will spread far larger than it now is. As a result of this holocaust, the Spirit of God, for the first time in human history, will be universally known. The staggering Power which is the Spirit of God, and which exists now in each one of us, will, for the first time in history, be discovered and used by all men. Instead of God being contained in some old church creed, we shall discover that God is far too big to be contained in anything like that. What a namby-pamby picture of God these human church-made conceptions of God are.

They will go. They cannot stand the test of time. They cannot do one single thing to stem the tide of hate and war. It is a rather remarkable thing that the "Psychiana" Movement is the only religion on the face of the earth which, in these days of peril and crisis, knows enough about the Power of the Spirit of God to challenge Hitler and Mussolini, and to actually do something constructive to stop once and for all these bloody wholesale murders which are devastating humanity. Neither the Catholic nor the Protestant church can do a single thing to help. Hopeless and miserable they are in this world crisis. The reason they can do nothing is because they do not know what to do. They know, as well as you and I know, that they have no God which is an active Living Spirit, and which can step into this world picture and bring permanent peace. They know that. They know that the True Spirit of God, which Spirit can, here and now, begin the destruction of such monsters as Hitler and Mussolini, is an entirely different "god" from any they have known. They look at this Movement, they see what is being accomplished in human lives through it, and they then pass a resolution condemning the teaching and the Founder of "Psychiana." That's about the best they can do. They stand helpless in this world calamity. They can do nothing to help; so they pass a resolution condemning the one who can, and is, doing something to make the Spirit of God real to humanity.

That's only history repeating itself. I love the church. It really believes that it is worshipping the true God. What a rude awakening lies ahead of it; for after this ghastly thing is over, the True Spirit of the True God will be universally known. When that

The Fifth Column

WE hear a lot in these days about the "Fifth Column," and here is a sample of how it actually works. This letter came, of course, unsigned, but it took us here less than 15 minutes to discover whom it was from, and the letter has been turned over to the F. B. I. in Bethlehem, Pa., for that is where the writer lives. I publish this letter here merely to show you the madness and the imbecility of those who follow after Madman Hitler. Let it be understood that I do not hate Hitler; but I see in him the cropping up of all the forces of evil, and I see in him a man who, unless he is stopped, will drive all freedom, peace, happiness and joy from off the face of the earth. He will not succeed, for the Spirit of God is operating on this earth through this "Psychiana" Movement, and his doom is sealed just as surely as if he never had been born. It would be good for the world had he never been born, but in view of the false philosophies of God so rampant on this earth, his appearance was necessary in order that the world might know the True God, and witness a demonstration of the Power of the True God through the overthrow of this man, and what he stands for. Here is the letter verbatim:

"Well, Dr. Robinson, you'd better hustle up that phoney black art of yours which is supposed to cause Hitler's downfall, or it will be the other way around. Oh, you crook, if only I could have seen through you sooner, I'd have been in pocket about $30.00. I'm not irritated at you because you're against Hitler, for that is one's personal privilege; but, in your heart, you realize that he is God as well as I do. He is God in person, so to speak, setting things in order so that a new era is starting over there, and will eventually spread to this continent—and when that happens, crooks like you will be no more.

"Oh, you aren't even a patch of what Hitler is and stands for, if only there were more like him. He is a million times better fitted for the role of 'second Christ' than you and all your English and French crooks together . . . and then you hint that you are selected by the Almighty to lead this world to righteousness, the mere thought of which is laughable. Oh, yes, I admit that I believed in you at one time, but now I'm wise to you and your game. You are no more interested in righteousness than the so-called 'Devil' himself, and you are doomed to go down with him and his gang. You are well pleased with Hitler's policy as long as it had to do with religion, something you detest, but when the Germans defended themselves against English crookery, he stepped on your toes, and of course that was different. And now your old self gained mastery again, and is coming into the open. But you, with all your devilish black art can't stop the plans of Hitler, the Almighty, you cheap chiseling crook."

You will note here the dangerous fanaticism which grips the whole German race. These poor dupes really think Hitler is God, and this makes their successes understandable. They are truly madmen. But where is the Power of God which is going to overthrow this mania? Where is it? That is what worries me more than anything else. I do not see it on the horizon. Outside of "Psychiana," there is no organization I know anything about which has either the vision or the Power to recognize in this thing, an attempt to dethrone God; and, shame of shames, all our churches, soaked and steeped in religious traditions, and unprovable traditions at that, sit there in their holy piety, and cannot do a single thing to either stop Hitler, or bring to mankind any of the Power of the Spirit of God. They do not even try. The only God they know anything about is Jesus Christ, and with all due respect to them and their god, I am making the statement to the world that that story, and the lack of Power behind that story—is not sufficient to stop Hitler. It never has been able to reveal God to the world, and, with its present philosophy, it never can.

This Hitler is operating under a supernatural power—the power of a madman. It will take a higher supernatural Power to stop him; and I want to know, outside of this Movement, where that Power is. It just isn't, that's all. The Christian churches had better get rid of the humiliating creeds, dogmas, and rituals that bind them, and they had better step out into the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God. If they do not, they will go down to a humiliating defeat, worse than the one from which they suffer now. I don't care what happens to me. I have been given the vision from God, and the message to the world which can save it, and I shall give that message regardless of what happens. The churches certainly can do nothing with the foolish "crucified god" theory they have, for too many other systems of religion have had the same theory, and they have all failed or passed out of existence. Just as long as the Christian church hangs onto the same old dogmas it now holds, it will never stop Hitler, and, this being strictly a religious war, Hitler can be stopped only by a religious Power. And, shame of shames, the so-called church of Jesus Christ knows nothing about that Power, and it knows that, and its members know that, too. You should see the thousands of letters which flood this study from church-members. They are all dissatisfied. They admit they do not know God. Yet the church insists on trying to save the

Questions and Answers

Ques: We have a little group in our church which is meeting at our homes and studying your Lessons. The pastor, a good man, just found out about it and insists that we discontinue our meetings. Most of us don't want to but a few do. What would you suggest?

Ans: If most of you want to continue, do so. Those who don't want to study my Lessons don't have to. As far as the pastor is concerned, I believe I should kindly but firmly suggest that he not make an issue of this matter in his church. If he does, he will probably find his church split in two, with him looking for another job. When a pastor gets so narrow that he will not allow his "flock" to learn the Power of the Spirit of God—well, he's missed his calling. He shouldn't be preaching anywhere. I believe he must be a Baptist minister, is he not? Many churches have groups in them studying "Psychiana," and in most cases, while the preacher does not take kindly to it, he does not raise too much Cain. Whether priests and preachers like it or not, this Movement is here to stay. It will grow and grow until men and women the wide world over know the truths of God, and slough off what has been handed to them as truths of God. You can't fool many people about religion these days. Times are too serious. They instinctively know God is going to manifest on this earth, and the conviction seems to be increasing that this is the Movement through which God is making His Power known. Tell your pastor he had better find the true God, and not the "crucified god" of the Baptist faith.

Ques: What about the death of a child who is not old enough to know God?

Ans: They bury the body and the life goes back to God who gave it.

Ques: If the story of Jesus Christ is not true, why is our time set by the birth and time of Jesus? The years are either A.D. or B.C. All time is according to this event of the birth of Jesus. Why?

Ans: Time is set the world over from Greenwich, England. I don't see what bearing the settling of time has to do with the divinity of Jesus Christ. It happened to be the religion of England when the time arrangement was made. Had time been set in India, it probably would have been before Christna instead of before Christ. That foolish argument for the divinity and existence of Jesus Christ does not hold water. It proves nothing at all. If you have to depend upon such arguments as that to prove your religion, you had better get the true religion, which teaches the Power of the Spirit of God in human lives.

Ques: I have found God through Jesus Christ. How can you say he never lived when I know that I found him and he is my savior?

Ans: Your two statements do not jibe. First, you say you found God through Jesus Christ, and one may find God through believing in almost anything. It is not a case of what you believe, but whether or not you find God. This, you state, you did. Then you go and spoil it all. You say that Jesus is your savior, but God and Jesus cannot BOTH be your savior, can they? If you found the Power of the Spirit of God, you don't need Jesus. If you did need him, you couldn't find him, for he died, if he ever lived, a couple of thousand years ago, and he never has been heard from since. I do not doubt but that you found God, and you may have found God through the story of Jesus Christ, for that is quite possible; but Jesus Christ cannot be your savior for the reason I mentioned. God is the only one who "saves," not Jesus. They are two entirely different beings, one a human, the other—God. Hence, there are not two Gods—just one.

Ques: What about all the beautiful hymns of the church? Are they not inspired and were not the writers of them inspired?

Ans: They are, and were. They were inspired in the light of their day. If they lived today, they would write far more comprehensive and beautiful hymns. Many of the old hymns are being thrown out of church hymnals today, and they should be. "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood" is one which should go. That's a ghastly thing to have in a church hymnal, is it not? I believe most of the inspiration of the old hymns comes from the tunes, and the memories associated with them, and not from the words. I think I have answered a similar question before.

Ques: Do you consider "Psychiana" a religion in the true sense of the word?

Ans: Well, if it isn't a religion, I should like to know what it is. Any teaching which deals with the Spirit of God and which manifests the Power of God in human lives certainly is a religion. As a matter of fact, "Psychiana" is about the only TRUE religion on the earth today. Those teaching "crucified gods" are pseudo-religions based on pagan myths and superstitions. They are all decaying fast as is evidenced by the last report of the Methodist church and almost every other church.

Ques: What hope does "Psychiana" offer for a future life?

Ans: Every hope. It is the only religion on the face of the earth which does offer an intelligent hope beyond the tomb. It teaches that the infinite Spirit of God lives in us all here and now. At death, the body decays and is buried, while the Life, which is God, never dies. Being God, it never can die. Certainly that is a hope for the future. It's the only sensible, logical hope ever given to the world.

Ques: If your theory of God is true, why have not the churches given it to the world long ago?

Ans: Because they were too busy preaching a crucified god to have much use for a Living God. The church is an evolutionary growth, yet it is founded on the beliefs of its forefathers. It's about time the church revamped its theology, and began to preach the Power of the Spirit of God, eliminating Jesus Christ completely, for to know the Spirit of God is enough.

Short-Circuiting God

This title was suggested by a little incident which just happened here in my study. I have a bell connection from this study to all parts of this building, and by pushing buttons I can call anyone on the staff. I wanted the girl at the head of the mailing department, and, as Andy would say, I "buzzed her." She did not come, so I went out to find out why, and discovered that the "buzzer" was not working. An electrician was called and the wires were "short-circuited." What does that mean? It means that some foreign substance had come between the push button in my study and the buzzer in the girl's office, and—the bell would not ring because something that did not belong there had gotten on the wires, and there was no connection. It was a nail. When the obstruction was removed, the buzzer worked again.

That is the way with God. He exists, and the human race exists also; but there is no connection between the two. Because there is no connection between the two, the "bell won't ring." The line is dead. No power goes through the wires. God and man cannot contact each other because of an obstruction. Now what is that obstruction? Let me tell you. The obstruction between God and man is the church and what it teaches. It has placed an obstruction between God and the human race. It has, by so doing, cut God off completely from the very ones who need the help of God.

How has it done that? It has done that by telling men and women that God Almighty was born of a virgin, crucified on a cross, and cannot be found by anyone unless found through an open "confession of faith" in what these differing churches teach. Naturally, such statements not being true, they have short-circuited God; and God will remain short-circuited until the obstruction is removed. Thank God though, those of us who know the falsity of the "crucified god" theory, know that God can be found, and we have removed the church-made obstruction from off our lines. The current flows freely, and in ever-increasing volume. When the day comes when the obstruction the church has interposed between God and man is removed, the whole world will know God. May you and I help hasten that day by telling men and women about the obstruction which has short-circuited God.

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

We Gave

The following poem was sent to us by Annice Cearley. We thank her for it:

"You gave to me a soul,
Fresh as the morning dew,
Purer than snow on the highest peak
And placed in my heart the key
To life, beautiful, serenely divine,
Far removed from earthly fetters
And locked in my heart
Treasures untold
Far more precious than stones or metals.
You gave to me a song,
That bursts from my lips at eventide;
You gave to me a love, that guides
Me through these mortal tasks,
A sweetly mystic, uplifting tide
Keeping my head far above the clouds
Giving me guidance
Through dangers unpassed,
Keeping me close to you.

—Annice L. Cearley

How desirable is this simplicity! Who will give it to me? I will quit all else; it is the pearl of great price.—Fenelon.

A Blue Bird

There's a little blue bird sitting on the sill outside my bedroom window as I write this to you. He sits there often. Just now he is cocking his little head to one side, and looking at me in a sort of inquisitive manner. He seems to know that there is a screen between us, and I think that beautiful little thing knows that I wouldn't hurt it even if I could catch it. There's a thought came to me as I looked at that wonderful creation of the Great God. All of God is wrapped up in that little blue bird; that is, all of God necessary for the bird to fly, and find food, and raise other little fellows. In other words, the Spirit of God in that little blue bird is its all sufficiency. The life, that's it; for it is the actual Spirit of Life, or the Spirit of God, which has created and still sustains the little bird sitting there on my bedroom window sill.

The bird did not make itself—it couldn't have done that. God, the Great Living Spirit of God, made that little bird, and it made it a long time ago. Millions of blue birds have been created before this one came, but had they not been created, this one could not have been sitting here by my window. (Now he's flown away.) God gave life to the blue bird. God also gave life to you. You did not make yourself, nor did you make your children. All you did was to provide them with the physical house in which the Spirit of God lives, and you didn't even do that. What you did was to cause a mechanical, physical conception between male and female, and when you had complied with the Law which is God, the Spirit of God did the rest. You didn't do it.

Over in Europe it's ghastly. That terrible thing is on my mind heavily these days. Millions of human beings, refugees, are being strafed by German machine guns as they try to migrate to another place in order to escape the flaming hell behind them. They had nothing to do with creating this hell—they are trying to get away from it. God had nothing to do with creating that hell—all He did was to make the man responsible for it. Then what happened? This man, this madman, got the funny idea that he was superior to God. He believes he can rule the world by brute force. He does not believe there is any other Power than himself. He is mistaken, for even now, as he ruthlessly blasts millions into misery, the Spirit of God is causing his downfall, and no one knows it better than he does.

All over this fair land there are tens of thousands of good honest American followers of this humble writer, who, four times daily, are steadily repeating, and earnestly too, the Spirit of God will bring your downfall. Do you think he can survive when that sort of Power is being thrown against him? I think not. The blue bird has returned. It can go and it can return at will. It never bothers about anything. When the winter snows come, this little thing and its mate will fly away south. Next spring they will both return. They have done this for years.

Hitler cannot do that. He is not free in either body or soul. He is a prisoner of the mad delusion that he is greater than the invisible Spirit which made the blue bird. No, he is not. This awful holocaust is but the forerunner of a better day. Today, they tell me over the air, many tens of thousands in England crowded into the churches and prayed to God to bring deliverance. I am afraid that will not stop the bombs which are to fall soon on Great Britain. There is a better and surer way than that, and that is for these good English people to stand on the Power of the Spirit of God, and instead of "praying" for God to help them, they should use the Power of God which ever lives in them if they but knew it.

But they don't know it. They have been taught a false philosophy of God. Their God is somewhere—they know not where. Oh, yes, they believe God exists, all right, but what they do not know is that they can use the Power of the Spirit of God here and now for the downfall of Mr. Hitler. I wish they knew that. Maybe we here in America can do it without their help. I trust we can. We are trying. In a moment not too far away, the God of this universe will speak through some man who is already on the scene. When that moment comes, and

Perpetual Power

There is perpetual Power for every "Psychiana" Student. The reason the Power is perpetual is because it is God. There is never a moment of the day or night when you may not stop in your tracks, and, no matter what the need may be, you may consciously throw the perpetual flow of God-Power into your life, to the exclusion of everything else. It makes no difference what the need may be—the Power is there. You keep still—you recognize the fact that all the Power of the God-Realm is available to you, and, you use that Power. It's as simple as A. B. C. It may take you some time to get used to having so much Power at your right hand for your immediate use, but after a while you will literally live in the vast ocean of God-Power. This is the way you should live. No need to pray to any God in the sky—just recognize the infinite Spirit which is God—in you. Learn that secret, and "yours is the world and everything that's in it."

The fairest lives, in my opinion, are those which regularly accommodate themselves to the common and human model, without miracle, without extravagance.—Montaigne world with the foolish philosophy that, 2,000 years ago, God Almighty, the Great Creator of this universe, came down from heaven to earth to be killed on a cross for the "sins" of the race. I brand that story false, and I can prove it is false, and no church in existence can prove it is not false.

I would not write this way, but I see the danger. I realize that the Power of the Spirit of God has to be manifested on this earth, or Madman Hitler will walk off with all of 35 of them, and none of them have it. I know, and you know, that the story of Jesus Christ or any other "crucified god" cannot cope with the present situation; but there is a Power which can cope with it. That Power is absolutely unknown to any church. It prefers its "Lord's Suppers" and its "beads" and its "black uniforms" and its "confession boxes," etc. Fellow Americans, it will take more than that to stop Hitler, and what it will take to stop Hitler the churches haven't got. Why do I write so fearlessly, you ask? Because times are dangerous. Don't underestimate the power of Madman Hitler who thinks he is God, and who tries to enforce his power by the bombing plane, etc. We have seen some of that in the past few months, and unless this beast is stopped by a higher Power, we shall see some more of it. Beloved, dangerous days are here. No church in existence can stop Hitler. They do not have the Power that will take. We of "Psychiana" know the truth of the present existence of the Spirit of God, and we know that truth does not lie in the story of any crucified god, for the world has had about 35 of them, and one of them have been able to demonstrate the actual Power of the True Spirit which is God.

What sort of a coward would I be if, knowing the truth, I neglected to give out that truth because of fear of persecution or death. Do you think I have not been threatened by agents of Hitler? You are mistaken, beloved. I live from day to day under the guiding and protecting Power of the Spirit of God, and daily receive threats from Hitlerites, all of which threats are as so much water on a duck's back. But never think this fight for the Spirit of God is easy. If you think it is, try trading places with me for a week. You couldn't do it. With days as dangerous as they are, this world is due to witness the greatest Spiritual Awakening of the Power of God it has ever known. As a matter of fact, it never yet has known the Power of the Spirit of God. It is due to find that out. If our fair land is to be saved, then the nation as a whole, the church included, had better get rid of theories of God, and find the actual presence and Power of the Spirit of God. Nothing else will save humanity from Madman Hitler.

I call upon every Student and every non-Student to support me as never before. I should, even now, be out in the front of the fight for God and the Right. This is Sunday, June 23rd. I think it is. I should be in Carnegie Hall, New York City, right now, bringing men and women into the knowledge of the Spirit of God. I cannot go until it is made possible. So then, won't you please send what money you can to me? Your payments, if you are making them, should come to us when due. If you have other finances, loan them to me, for the sake of the world, God, and yourself, for I again repeat, in closing this article, Hitler will not be stopped unless a higher Power than he knows stops him. That Power exists. It is the Spirit of God. The Spirit is manifesting through the "Psychiana" Movement, and you, every one of you, are in duty bound to stand behind this Movement, so that the Power of God may be made known to humanity as fast as possible.

I am doing all I can. I have always done that. I shall always do it. It's a good thing this Movement has a man at the head of it who knows no fear—who knows nothing except the Power of the Spirit of God. Through no other Power could I keep this work up. Please—do what you can financially as speedily as you can. When the sum of $100,000 is to my credit at the bank, I shall leave the next day for the public fight for God against Hitler, and God—the Great Spirit of God—will, through this humble man and Movement, make Himself known to all the earth. I only trust that help to us does not come too late. The time is getting short. And now, I send to you all, the infinite Peace and Power of the Realm of the Spirit of God. Go and say your affirmations right now, and help me bring Hitler down.

The next letter comes from Utica, New York, and Mrs. Fuiro states:

"It is simply wonderful to understand the way you express to me everything. Yes, it is wonderful."

From Chicago, Illinois, on South Parkway, comes a letter which states:

"The Life-Spirit is right now operating through me, so wonderful it all is. I have peace, love, health, and success. The God-Law never fails."

From Cincinnati, Ohio, West Seventh Street, comes a wonderful letter telling of an accident which probably would have killed the ordinary man. Here is what this Student says:

"The other day I was hit in the head with a bucket that weighed ten pounds. It cut a gash in my head that had to have six stitches. You could see the bone in my head, but it healed up in three days, and I did not even feel it. The doctor could not understand why I suffered no pain."

Now we go to Waverley, Iowa, for the next letter and Mrs. Cooper says:

"I want you to know I am certainly thankful I answered your advertisement, as your letters have certainly helped me."

I want my Students to understand that when I take these letters from the files I just take a large box and pick out one letter after another. For every one I publish we probably have one hundred or one thousand which, of course, can not be published because of lack of space. The story is the same the world over. When men and women recognize that all there is of God can be found and used by them here and now, life changes. There is no movement on the face of the earth outside of this Movement, which is making God an actual reality to all alike.

From Cedartown, Georgia, we receive this statement:

"Through your Teaching, I have found that my God lives here and now, the only Power there is. One day, not so long ago, my brother-in-law was working out in the field with several others. Suddenly he fell and cried out, 'I am dying.' If I ever saw anyone die, that man died. It came on so suddenly that we were all horrified. I was there, and I knew that all the Power in heaven and on earth was with me, so I rubbed his face with my hand. His eyes opened. He asked where he was and he is well today. He tells everyone he was dead."

I see we are still in New York state, for this letter comes from Mrs. Hilton in Worcester, New York. She states right off in the first line of her letter:

"What a change before the two weeks were up, for with the third Lesson, I began to get calls for work!"

This is an example where the God-Law supplies material needs as well as spiritual. If it could not do that, it could not be God at all. But it is.

Now from the Eighteenth Signal Service Company, Fort Knox, Kentucky, we received this:

"I can certainly say that Lesson No. 4 is one of the most dynamic pieces of writing I have ever read or ever expect to read."

Another Student from the airplane squadron came to Moscow last night from March Field, California, to see me. His name was Ralph Shaw and he is a wonderful type of chap. He is organizing "Psychiana" units in the Army Air Corps and is having quite a bit of success.

From Morristown, New Jersey, the home of George Washington coffee, a thankful mother. Her son has been out of work a long time. Here is what she says now:

"I wish to thank you, Doctor Robinson, for my boy now has work. I am so glad I answered your ad for the Lessons are wonderful."

A Good Point

A minister writes from Toronto, Canada, as follows: "What is the difference between what you call the Spirit of God and the Holy Ghost of the Christian church?" The answer is—there is no difference. If the Christian church taught the Spirit of God alone, it would have the truth; but that does not seem to satisfy the Christian church, for it is not satisfied with having One True God. It has to split God into three parts, and then, after it has done that, it tries to tell the world that it has three "gods," each one-third being the same as the whole. That is a mathematical impossibility. One-third of anything cannot be as great as the whole, and this applies with "gods" just as well as it does with anything else—three cannot be one, and one cannot be three. I can agree with the Christian church insofar as God the Father is concerned. Really, that's all that is necessary—just one Great God. The second third of the Christian's "god" I cannot, of course, agree with, and even if I could agree, this second part is completely unnecessary if there already is God the Father.

The Christian church, however, has another third of God, and this one-third is a ghost. I do not see the need of having a ghost for a part of God. Ghosts are uncanny things—and cannot be connected with God Almighty. I believe that any religion, Christian or otherwise, would do well to eliminate any "god" who has three parts, and stand firm and secure on God the Father of us all, the Mighty Creator, without any man-made appendages. Though these words may seem harsh, and though they cut at the very core of the Christian faith, they are offered only in a spirit of friendship and love, which spirit is born in me of the Great Spirit of God. If I were not vitally interested in God and humanity, I assure you I should not risk my very life for God as I now do. Let the Christian church, and all the other churches—for one is as good as the other—let them all, I say, forget their "sons of god" and their "ghosts of god," and let them all now, in this critical hour, call upon the Spirit of God for help, and such help will be forthcoming. Such help cannot come from a false conception of God. No "ghost" can bring freedom. No "son" of God can help. The Great Living Spirit which is God—that Spirit can do the work. So I say to my Toronto preacher friend, "Throw away your man-made theories of 'sons' and 'ghosts' and get busy and give God Almighty credit for still living, and still being able to save humanity from the clutches of a mad, God-defying, blitzkrieg-inventing usurper whose whole existence stands in defiance of God. He will fall. Mark my words, but his fall could be so much speedier if all churches would believe in the existence of the Great Spirit—God, and not in a "son of god" or a 'ghost of god.' These two are neither necessary nor helpful. Just God. Just the Great Spirit of Love, Life, Justice, Power, and Wisdom. Just God."

day comes, and it is almost here, we shall find that God lives, here and now, in the life of every created human being—living there and just waiting to make Its presence and Power known. The "god" of the Christian church, of course, was killed on a cross 2,000 years ago, and has never been heard from since. It is going to take something more than that story to make this world a peaceful place in which to live. It is going to take the actual Power and Life which is God to do that.

At an early moment, I expect to start this world-wide outpouring in America. That Spiritual Awakening will go down in history. It will be the means in the hands of God of bringing both Hitler and Mussolini to their knees; for, through this great religious revival, the Spirit of God will make Its presence and Power known to all men, and all men, seeing and knowing the actual Spirit which is God on earth, will naturally recognize the Power of that Great Invisible Presence, and through that Power men will fight no more. Such parasites as Hitler and Mussolini, he who stabs a neighbor in the back, cannot exist. If ever one should take a notion to rear his ugly head, the Power of the Spirit of God on the earth, in men, will bring him to a speedy decision to change his mind.

The "old time religion" with its "crucified god" will be a thing of the past. The new religion, which will be universal, will be a living demonstration of the actual Power of God in human lives. When men and women recognize that Great Spirit, all wars will cease, I promise you. The Spirit of God, through the "Psychiana" Movement, is even now making Its presence known on the earth. When the fullness of that Presence becomes fully manifested, peace, forever, will reign supreme. Many things will happen first, but the manifestation of the Power of the Spirit of God through this Movement will be thorough and speedy. It will be a day of staggering happenings and loud rejoicings. God and man united. God and man united because man, for the first time in his history, will find God where God is—and not beyond the skies or hanging on some cross for the sins of the world. Had that church fable never been told, the chances are that the present war would not be in existence, and the chances are further, that man would have found God long ago.

God has never been separated from his finest creation—man. Supposedly religious teachings have been brought to us, which teachings could not help but separate man from God. Indeed, they taught that God made a mistake when He created man. He did a bad job. Then, after drowning the whole caboodle like rats in a trap, God Almighty made another attempt, and again failed; for religious organizations today still tell us that we were "born in sin and shapen in iniquity." That's a good selling talk, when the only remedy is in the hands of those telling the story. I call upon all peace-loving, yet fighting, Americans today to recognize that God Almighty never made a mistake when He created man, nor did He ever plan things so that it was necessary for the Great Creator of this universe to come to earth and be murdered on a cross, in order that the creation God made might be "saved." Let's throw that story to the four winds, and let's give God Almighty credit for living in the creation He founded—for that is the fact of the matter.

Any man or woman anywhere can very easily convince himself or herself that God exists in him or her as the greatest Spiritual Power the world has ever known. Try recognizing the presence of the invisible Spirit of God in you—try talking to God for a change, and see what happens. When men and women begin to realize that the Great Creator of this universe, the Spirit of God, actually lives in each one, with all the Power, Wisdom, Love, and Peace that Spirit possesses, this world will not be too long in throwing that Power against the forces of hell which are devastating the world today. It is not a case of "god dying on a cross to save man from sin"—it is a case of man being taught the truth about the present existence of the Great Spirit of God, right here on this earth, in man, where God should be. That is the fact of the existence of God. Let each one of us recognize that fact, and I assure you the Power which that revelation will bring will be more than sufficient to stop a barrel of Mussolinis and Hitlers. We gave the churches a chance to disclose God to the world, and they failed miserably. Now let's deal direct with the Spirit of God, for that Spirit never can fail.

Let every reader of this magazine do faithfully the affirmations or statements of fact I have sent out. Let every one stand behind me. If there is a wealthy Student who would like to help me start on this campaign for God and humanity nationally, let such a one come forth with material support. The time is beautifully ripe. This horror can be stopped. It can be stopped only through the Power of God, which is the Power of right, peace, justice, and everything else which is of God. No need for any mystery to surround the name of God. Just a simple recognition of the fact that you are the greatest creation God ever made, and a recognition of the further fact that God, the Great Spirit of God, with all His Power, actually lives in you as your very life, with all the Power that is God instantly available to you. When you grasp that staggering fact, and commune with the God-Law in you, you will be able to use that Power for whatever things you need. Let's do that now, shall we? Of course we shall, and, working together, we will demonstrate in a manner which will shake the foundations of this old world, the fact that God did not die on a cross 2,000 years ago, but still lives with all his Power in every human life.

Getting Straight

Yesterday I was in Portland, Oregon, visiting an old friend of many years' standing. This man is a very ardent Christian, and, like most members of the Christian faith, he really believes in what he has been told to believe and what he was taught to believe in his childhood in England. I respect the sincerity of my friend. I like him. He is true blue. During the conversation he said to me, "Frank, you'd get so much farther if you would stop knocking the church—why you could be the greatest religious leader of all time if you'd only stop your knocking."

Let it be distinctly understood here that I believe all churches of all beliefs to be good. The Christian church is no better than other churches are, but, as they both are honestly trying to do good, up to the light they have, they are the very best institutions we have. They will never hurt anyone. You will never find them advocating anything they do not believe to be right. Their whole intent is good, and I realize the fact as much as anyone does. I love the church, and have made the statement that I love it many, many times over the past twelve years.

What I am trying to do—and all I am trying to do—is to bring to all churches, not only the Christian church, the astounding fact that whenever they teach the people that God Almighty came down from heaven, was born of a virgin, etc.—I am trying to tell them that this statement is only an old religious tradition, and has no truth in it. That's a big statement to make, and I fully realize the tremendous import of it; but I know I am right. I can prove my case, and no church of any denomination can prove its case. All the time I am doing this, my heart sorrows for these churches, for their theory of "God crucified" has brought them close to their own doom, and has rendered them all absolutely powerless to do anything about world conditions today. They cannot manifest any of the Power of the Great Spirit—God, and the reason they cannot manifest that Power is because that Power cannot be known through teaching that God

Almighty was crucified on a cross. If they will give up that sad and impotent theory, and will direct all their efforts to teaching the actual and literal Power of the Spirit of God on this earth here and now, they will go places. Until they do, if they ever do, they will go nowhere except downhill. All the "church-unions" cannot help. The question will still remain: "Is their story true?" I say once more that it is not true, and it can easily be proved untrue according to the rules of evidence which govern our American courts.

If, then, the story is not true, the Truth must lie somewhere else, and it does. There can be no question about that in the light of the record of this Movement. I should very much like to go into the churches of all denominations and bring to them the Power of the Spirit of God, but that cannot be, for these churches are too well sold on the myth that God Almighty, after making a mistake when He created man, came to earth and by the cross tried to accomplish man's "salvation." Had that story not been told so many times, one might believe it.

Now, let no churchman think I am opposed to any church of any religion. I am for them all. The simple fact is that the Spirit of God has chosen this Movement and its Founder to bring to this world the true conception of God. That being the case, the true conception will triumph regardless of how many of all religions believe something different. "By their fruits ye shall know them" is a Christian axiom. It is true. The present churches cannot do one thing to bring a knowledge of God to the earth as they exist today. They never have. They never will until they put aside the foolish theory of Jesus Christ, or Jeseus Chrishna, or any of the rest of these "gods" being God Almighty.

when God Almighty really speaks in Power through this man, as he will, you may safely rest upon one fact, and that is that this ghastly thing called war will be once and for all banished.

The Power that made and sustains this blue bird is about to speak. I cannot tell the day or the hour. That is hidden in God alone; but I shall know when the time comes, for it is through this Movement that God will make His True Presence known to the world. I have known this for many years. Time after time, on some lone mountainside, I have spent the night in agony before God for this world. For forty years I did that; and then, one day, God spoke to me and I replied. Then it was I knew for what purpose God had brought me into being.

The way has been hard. I have not been able to see the Light always; but when I could not see the Light, I just traveled towards it, for I knew the general direction. I knew the Light was there. God, in His infinite grace and love, has seen fit to use me to the end that the truths of God shall be brought to this world through me. I wish the churches knew that. I should like so much to help and cooperate with them, but I cannot do that as long as they are worshipping Mammon instead of God. Even as I write this, the Methodist church is trying to kick Dr. Tenney out of the Methodist Conference because he is trying, with me, to make God real to the world. What a pity. No wonder the Methodist church knows nothing about God when it will do such things as that. It would do well to take a lesson from the little blue bird. It is trying to crucify the very men and the Movement through which the final knowledge of the Eternal Spirit of God will be brought to the world. I can truly say, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do." Some day, ere too long, they will know. Then, perhaps, their hearts will throb with remorse and anguish that they "crucified anew" the messenger from God.

May the Spirit of God have much compassion on the Methodist church. May that church soon throw away its "god" Mammon, and find the Spirit of God as that Great Spirit exists.
